

- 1 Students who are educated in the light of contemporary science should gain the knowledge and skills of agricultural engineering that can lead the country's agriculture.
- 2 Acquiring knowledge and skills that can contribute to the continuity of regional and global sustainable development.
- 3 Gaining knowledge and skills about the production and management of sustainable products that protect the natural environment.
- 4 To be a pioneer in increasing productivity, quality and production in the field of Field Crops production in Turkey.
- 5 To gain the ability to think scientifically, collect and analyze scientific data.
- 6 To gain the ability to transfer theoretical knowledge into practice.
- 7 Gaining the ability to take social responsibility.
- 8 Gaining the skills of working together and sharing.